Philippe Melka, proprietor of Melka Wines, describes his ideal outing in Napa: "My wife Cherie and I love to start the morning off with a hike up Mount St. Helena—it was our first adventure together when we first moved to St. Helena. And then following the hike, we like to invite our two children, Chloe and Jeremy, to Solage for Sunday brunch, where the outdoor eating space is gorgeous and the weather is always pleasant. After brunch, we play a few rounds of bocce, as a little family rivalry is always fun."
